Commenting on the appointment, Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said: "Gaurav is a great addition to the Tattersalls team of overseas representatives and his appointment demonstrates the importance that we place on promoting Tattersalls and particularly the December Mare Sale throughout India.

"Well-known and hugely respected in the Indian racing and bloodstock industry, he brings a wealth of experience to the role and his knowledge and extensive contacts in India will be invaluable as we look to promote all Tattersalls sales to as wide an international audience as possible."

Commenting on his appointment, Rampal said: "Tattersalls and the December Mare Sale has played hugely-important roles in the development of the Indian thoroughbred, and the victories of recent Indian Derby and Oaks winners Enabler and Jendayi, who are both out of mares purchased at the sale, bear testament to that.

"Tattersalls is widely regarded as the European market-leader, with a reputation for outstanding customer service, and I am thrilled to be joining the team and look forward to encouraging even more Indian buyers to visit Tattersalls."
